

✓ WHY CYBERSEC FIRST RESPONDER[®]

Cybersecurity professionals require a well-rounded understanding of the tools, processes, and strategies that can be employed to defend their information systems from constant evolving threats.

CyberSec First Responder (CFR) is a comprehensive certification designed to validate the knowledge and skills required to protect critical information systems before, during, and after an incident.

CERTNEXUS[®]

✓ ACCREDITATIONS

- Compliant with ANSI/ISO/IEC 17024 standards
- Approved by the U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) to fulfill Directive 8570/8140 requirements
- UK GCHQ Certified Training (GCT) Available
- Human Resources Development Fund (HRDF)
- and more...

This exam will certify that candidates have the knowledge, and abilities to combat the changing threat landscape and are able to assess risks/vulnerabilities, acquire data, analyze communicate, determine scope, recommend remediation actions, and accurately report results.

READINESS ASSESSMENT

Measure your organization's level of preparedness against cyber threats with our complimentary CFR Readiness Assessment. This tool was designed to measure knowledge of how to detect and avoid imminent cyber threats. You'll receive a free report including staff members' readiness results. Learn how to redeem your free access code at certnexus.com/cfr-readiness

57% of business leaders said it's taking longer to resolve cyber incidents and 65% said attack severity is increasing
IBM, 2018

Mean time to identify a breach:

Mean time to contain a breach:

Ponemon

SECURE

Extend IT and cybersecurity professionals' competencies to protect your investments